Heart Failure Takes Off James
Howard.

WAS WELL-KNOWN IN HONOLULU

Died on Prospecting Trip to Laoag Province of Ilicos Norte Philippine Islands.

The following clipping, taken from the columns of the Woodland Democrat, published in Woodland, California, gives the particulars as far as known concerning the sudden demise of James M. Howard, familiarly known as "Matt" Howard, whose sudden and untimely death in Manila was noted in the columns of the Advertiser some days ago.
"Late Tuesday afternoon Mrs. E. A.
Howard drove into Woodland and received a letter conveying to her information that to her, as well as the family's many friends, was a painful surprise.

"It was written by Captain and Quartermaster J. S. Morrison of the Twenty-first Infantry, under date of Laoag, Province of Ilicos Norte, Philippine Islands, May 14th. Captain Morrison wrote that it was his painful duty to announce that on the day previous James Madison Howard died of heart failure.

"No papers were found on the body that would serve for identification except an envelope addressed to Mrs. E.
A. Howard, Woodland, California. This envelope was used with the hope that it might lead to identification. Captain Morrison also wrote that he had taken charge of everything found in the possession of the deceased and would forward the same to whomever might furnish satisfactory evidence of their right to the property.

"In behalf of Mrs. Howard, E. T.
Clowe has written to Captain Morrison enclosing conclusive proof that she is the mother of the deceased. Mr. Clowe also expressed the thanks of the family for his kindly interest.
"J. M. Howard, or, as he was better known, 'Matt' Howard, was born near Buckeye, in this county, February 20, 1861. He was the youngest son of the late Stephen A. Howard and his widow, Mrs. E. A. Howard. The family moved to Woodland about twenty-nine years ago. After the deceased reached the stage of manhood, he spent some time in Texas. After returning to California he went next to Nevada, where for three years he was engaged in the stock business. Upon the death of his father he made his home with his mother.

"Mr. Howard, after the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands, engaged in the stock trade of California with that country. He made his last trip to the islands two years ago. His mother also went to Honolulu and made her home there until last February. Mr. Howard decided to make a prospecting trip to the Philippines, and took passage for Manila on the 20th of February. A few days later Mrs. Howard sailed for San Francisco.

"Before Mr. Howard left Honolulu Mrs. Howard gave him several envelopes addressed to her in Woodland. It was one of these envelopes, found on his body, that gave Captain Morrison a clue as to the whereabouts of relatives of deceased.

"When Mr. Howard left Honolulu he expected to touch at Guam and make a stop of ten days. So far as is known he wrote no letters to Woodland after his departure from Honolulu. The presumption is that he was buried in Laoag, although no positive information on that point has been received.

"The deceased leaves a mother, one brother, Dr. E. S. Howard of San Francisco, and two sisters, Mrs. Gordon Marshall and Mrs. E. T. Clowe, both of this city. He was a genial, jovial, companionable man and was well liked by all who knew him. The news of his untimely death and under such pathetic circumstances was received in this city with profound regret."
